29 April 1977

Dear Admiral Turner,

I write to thank you for the very beautiful gift you gave me on your departure, also for the warm and generous terms in which you referred to my contributions to Allied Forces Southern Europe.

It has been a privilege and inspiration to work under your leadership and, like all of us in the Command, I regret that you have had to leave Naples, after only a comparatively short stay.

It is only the awareness of the enormous importance and the great responsibilities of the high office to which your President has called you that can compensate us in the Southern Region for your sudden and early departure.

I take this opportunity of wishing you continuing achievement in all your official duties and lasting happiness to Mrs. Stansfield Turner and yourself.

I would also express the hope that it will not be long before you are able to revisit Italy, a country about which you have said so many kind things, and... just in case, please find herewith an invitation card.

Very sincerely yours
Federico Andreotti
